Mopsick Tax Law, LLP is pleased to announce our next chapter as a law firm. Effective July 1, 2019, the firm will be named Mopsick Carrere, LLP.

Steven Mopsick and Ryan Carrere have over 60 years of combined experience in tax controversy and other tax-related matters. Steven has 30 years of IRS experience in Washington, D.C., and as the IRS District Counsel in Sacramento, and 17 years in private federal tax law practice. Ryan's 14 years of practice has focused primarily on federal and California tax matters, but he has also worked in other areas including business formation/dissolution, and business transactions.

The firm's name change recognizes Ryan's significant contributions to the firm.

Thanks to our many clients, colleagues, friends and family for their continuous support. We look forward to the future as Mopsick Carrere, LLP.
